THE SHOW

I hope I get a good roll... Dungeons & Dragons kicks us off with a celebration of the imagination. Let's explore.

🎵 various by E.S.Posthumus and Colin Blunstone

Travel through time with us in The Whole Shebang, where scale is as malleable as clay, and the stars are at our finger tips!

🎵 Sonata No. 17 in D Minor, "The Tempest" by Beethoven

Did someone say climate change? In Our Corporate Promise, good work ethic pushes ever-forward, no matter what.

🎵 Underwater - Scott Holmes music remixed by Jack McGuire

M-POP is our super-serious send-up of all things fandom. Sex symbols be warned.

🎵 Boyz Side by Wes Braver and Jack McGuire

In At The Zoo, we explore how mime allows us to embody empathy. What do you see?

🎵 Dear Pressure (Instrumental) by Miracles of Modern Science

We follow a man and his aide in Recollect. Each has a different relationship with the past, and together, they find themselves in the present.

🎵 We Have a Map of the Piano by Mum

Shall we finish the game? Dungeons & Dragons returns. Ah, tweenagers!

🎵 various by E.S.Posthumus and Colin Blunstone

This performance was presented thanks to support from the Newton Cultural Council, Newton Theatre Company, and Tufts University's Department of Drama & Dance.
